

Investor Relations

Security Benefit

Security Benefit was established in 1892 with the belief that everyone deserves an opportunity to achieve financial security. With more than 50 years of expertise specifically in the retirement savings market, our company is dedicated to helping our nationwide network of independent financial professionals build their business and help their clients achieve a confident, comfortable retirement.

We work with all types of individual investors, from the most conservative to the most aggressive, and offer expertise in a variety of markets and wealth segments to meet their aspirations for accumulating and protecting assets and securing lifetime income in retirement.

Our Strengths

- Superior investment management
- Low-cost administration
- Retirement savings product innovation
- Multi-channel diversified distribution model with elite, limited number of distributors

SBL Holdings, Inc. (SBLH) is the non operating holding company for its life insurance subsidiaries, Security Benefit Life Insurance Company and First Security Benefit Life Insurance and Annuity Company of New York.

Institutional investors who may wish to view financial information for SBLH may request access by submitting their contact information through the form below. Please allow 1-2 business days to process the request.