

Teachers Can Supplement Retirement Funds, Consultant Says

Security Benefit was featured in a recent article by FinancialAdvisor magazine.

Teachers are retiring in droves because of the pandemic and need to rethink their retirement plans, according to Tom Granger, second vice president of qualified plans at Security Benefit, a retirement solutions and annuity company based in Topeka, Kan., that specializes in advising teachers.

Read the complete article from FinancialAdvisor.

SB-10009-00